

Your homework this week will be to create a revision poster on one unit of work that you have covered so far. It does not have to include everything in the unit

In order to successfully complete this homework, your revision poster will need:

To cover at minimum 1 page of A4

A clear title showing the unit you have picked

2 sub titles for the examples

2 examples (minimum)

The best homework from each class will be put forward for homework high-fliers and featured on the schools twitter account. There will be prizes for the most creative submissions

The units that you have covered so far are:
